Name and appointment titles come from dFac.

Edit your Overview in Scholars@Duke

Add a profile picture in Scholars@Duke

Add links to other personal sites can be added in Scholars@Duke

The categories displayed on your public Scholars@Duke profile will vary based on data available. Empty sections will not be made visible.

A full list of all supported categories can be found in your profile manager, along with helpful “How to Edit” tips for each section.

Certain data fields, such as degree history or selected grants, come from other Duke systems.

Please contact your departmental power user for any questions regarding your Scholars profile.

The categories displayed on your public Scholars@Duke profile will vary based on data available. Empty sections will not be made visible.

A full list of all supported categories can be found in your profile manager, along with helpful “How to Edit” tips for each section.

Certain data fields, such as degree history or selected grants, come from other Duke systems.

Please contact your departmental power user for any questions regarding your Scholars profile.

The categories displayed on your public Scholars@Duke profile will vary based on data available. Empty sections will not be made visible.

A full list of all supported categories can be found in your profile manager, along with helpful “How to Edit” tips for each section.

Certain data fields, such as degree history or selected grants, come from other Duke systems.

Please contact your departmental power user for any questions regarding your Scholars profile.

The categories displayed on your public Scholars@Duke profile will vary based on data available. Empty sections will not be made visible.

A full list of all supported categories can be found in your profile manager, along with helpful “How to Edit” tips for each section.

Certain data fields, such as degree history or selected grants, come from other Duke systems.

Please contact your departmental power user for any questions regarding your Scholars profile.